STRANGE DEATH OF HOLLIS.

Foul Play Is Suspected in the Case of a Forest Lake Man.

special to the Scranton Tribune.

Montrose, Sept. 12.—There is considerable excitement here over the death of Woodlawn Hollis, a farmer of Forest Lake township, who was found last night lying by the roadside near J. R. Beebe's residence in Bridgewater, about three miles from this borough. The man was dead when found and an examination disclosed a scalp wound about two inches in length on the right side of the head a few inches above the ear, and a broken bone broken. Hollis had been at Montrose a week, considerably intoxicated when he left town via the Friendsville stage, shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in company with Hugh McDonald, of Friendsville, and the stage driver, Bert Shay. It is said that all three had been drinking, but Hollis alone could be considered drunk. Nothing more was heard of the trio until Shay and McDonald stopped at Mr. Beebe's and said that Hollis had fallen out of the wagon, dead drunk, and was lying down the road a few rods, and they didn't know but he was dead. They asked the people at Beebe's to look after the man and then continued on to Friendsville. Search for the injured man was made and he was found as before stated. A number of circumstances appeared suspicious and the authorities will not do much investigation to determine. District Attorney Little, Justice M. H. Van Seter, another coroner, and several others visited the scene last night and had the body removed from the roadside to Beebe's farm. This morning Acting Coroner Van Seter summoned a jury composed of C. N. Warner, E. P. Pope, H. D. Jones, W. H. Dennis, Jr., F. C. Cooper and G. H. Fraizer, and with District Attorney Little they drove out to Beebe's. The boy was viewed and an autopsy was conducted by Dr. C. D. Mackey. A number of witnesses were sworn and evidence taken, when the inquest adjourned to meet tomorrow at Montrose at 1 o'clock p.m., when additional witnesses will be heard. Rumors are rife and suspitious rampants. Hugh McDonald, hearing this morning that a warrant was out for his arrest, has retained John M. Key, the well-known criminal lawyer, of this place, as his attorney. The story as to warrants was a mistake, of course, as no one has been charged with any crime in connection with the affair. The result of the inquest is awaited with interest.

HEAT NERVE PROSTRATION

Sudden Prostration is a Feature of Hot Weather—Upset Nerves and Weak Nerve Centres Are the Causes.

All along the line of mental and muscular exhaustion is prevalent during the summer months is the underlying cause of overworked Nerves—over consumption of Nerve Tissue which has not been replaced. It is manifested in the mind that refuses to receive and act upon impression in the usual way—and that sometimes when attempted to be whipped into work, jumps the bounds of reason and founders in a maze of confusion. It is manifested physically by an over-tired, languid, tireless, muscle-relaxed condition that lacks resisting power which is necessary to withstand heat exposure. It's by the influence of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills in rallying the nerves that energy is quickened—the great wealth of Nerve system of the body vibrates with new life—Brain Nerves—Heart Nerves—Stomach Nerves feel the influence as activity replaces lassitude and strength is regained. The hidden current within which spurs life has been brought to Nature's required standard.

Mrs. James Watson, of 315 Twelfth street, Scranton, Pa., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are fine. I began to use them for nervous sick headaches and nervousness and had great success in stopping them completely. Recently I used them to overcome the depression and weakness following grippe, and they were most useful in giving me bodily strength and nerve steadiness. As are all around nerves and general tonic they are grand, and I am very much pleased that my attention was called to them through Matthews Brothers, druggists, corner Washington and Lackawanna avenues."

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Sept. 12.—The news from Buffalo was practically eliminated as an influence in the stock market for the first time since the event of the fire. Investors have been loath to loan big money on the horizon, as tomorrow's preliminary figures of the week's cash movement will allow some estimate of what the showing will be. In the item of loans, however, the statement itself on Saturday will have to be relied upon, as there can be no record from a week's statement. The banks have lost cash on the interior movement during the week, but the drain to the sub-basins has been sensibly diminished. The acceptances by the secretary of the treasury of tenders of government bonds were known after the market closed yesterday, and the payments for same are too late, so the banks have been compelled to make up the deficit in their cash balance. The expressiveness of the secretary to offer any considerable sum of money to bondholders to induce them to sell, informed this feeling, which was a considerable factor in the uncertainty which pervaded the market all day.

Republic Steel was particularly weak as an after effect of the poor showing of the annual report, and Amalgamated Copper was conspicuously under pressure all day. Sugar was sold ostensibly on account of the close of the fruit crop, but the price of sugar was not of any considerable extent were in stocks of little promise. Total sales today, 40,000 shares.

Railroad bonds were dull and firm. Total sales per value, $1,255,000.

United States advanced 14¢, the old and 14¢, and the new is 14 per cent. on the last call today.
